Keynote Address:

Platforms, Partnerships, and the Power of Convergence

Dr. Hui CAI, Vice President of Corporate Alliances, WuXi AppTec, China

Abstract

Our industries are entering a new age of transformative innovation. Disruptive technologies, global collaborations, and convergence of disciplines are shaping innovation-driven industries, our global chemistry enterprise included, in new and profound ways. In this presentation, Dr. Cai will discuss examples of innovative platforms, partnership, and their implications for the future.

Dr. Hui CAI joined WuXi AppTec in 2009 as Vice President of Business Development, and is currently Vice President of Corporate Alliances, Head of PR and Corporate Communications, and Head of Product Definition, Design and Development (PD3).

Prior to WuXi, Dr. CAI spent 10 years at Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical Research and Development leading multiple drug discovery programs in the therapeutic areas of inflammation and autoimmune diseases. She is a co-author and co-inventor to over 40 scientific publications and issued or pending patents. Dr. CAI is a Councilor of the American Chemical Society (ACS) and a member of ACS national committee on Chemistry and Public Affairs. She is also a member of the Advisory Council of UCSD IRPS 21th Century China Program, and a member of BayHelix. In her past capacity, she served as a Commissioner at the City of San Diego Science and Technology Commission, Chair of SABPA, and President of SDCA. Dr. CAI received her BS and MS in Chemistry from Peking University, PhD from The Scripps Research Institute, and MBA from UCSD Rady School of Management as a DLA Piper – Athena Scholar.
